

ROCHESTER HILLS FIRE DEPARTMENT 31-CENT SCOOP NIGHT

Firefighters Will Koehler, Matt Kawiecki and Danny Cooper serve customers.

Baskin-Robbins recently teamed up with local fire departments across the Country for 31 Cent Scoop Night.

On April 29th two local Baskin-Robbins Ice Cream Stores welcomed the Rochester Hills Fire Department to help sell ice cream for 31 cents a scoop to benefit the National Volunteer Fire Council.

Rochester Hills Fire Firefighters traded in their fire helmets on this night to serve ice cream to customers and provide an up-close and personal look at their fire equipment. This is the third year Baskin-Robbins in Rochester Hills has participated in the event.

Customers wait outside in long lines at Baskin Robbins for their 31-cent scoop of ice cream.

Residents Evin and Katie Jakubiak enjoy sitting in the Fire Truck.

Customers get a chance to see a fire truck up close and talk to firefighters.
