

A Special Place

The Rochester Hills Museum at Van Hoosen Farm is available for your unique event. From wedding receptions, to family reunions, and from birthday parties to anniversary celebrations, you will be surrounded by history in a beautiful and historic setting. The Museum complex includes the 1840 Van Hoosen Farmhouse - home to five generations of the Taylor and Van Hoosen families, the 1850 Red House and the 1927 Van Hoosen Dairy Barn that is filled with exhibits, videos, and temporary displays that reflect the fascinating history of our community. Our buildings are surrounded by 16 acres of gardens and grounds and the property is bordered by Stoney Creek.

We would be honored to share our facility with you and we look forward to matching your needs with our unique site.

We've been waiting for you since 1823!

Facility Rental Opportunities

Rochester Hills Museum at Van Hoosen Farm

Our Historic Grounds

Outdoor events are typically held on a site situated along Stoney Creek on the Dairy Barn side of the property. This location provides easy vehicle access for set up. The adjacent 1927 Van Hoosen Dairy Barn will be open for your guests during your event. Several 20'x30' tents are available to rent.

Outdoor Event Fees

Our outdoor event fee is $200 per hour. This includes one hour to set up, one hour to take down, 100 white garden chairs, restrooms, garbage collection, electricity, water, manicured lawn, and use of our 1927 Dairy Barn for your guests to enjoy.

Your guests can also enjoy our historic gardens and grounds, Stoney Creek, and our Children's Garden.

Indoor Event Fees

The Dairy Barn Conference Room can be rented for smaller parties, events, and meetings. Fees are $75 per hour. The conference room can seat from 30-50 people depending on room arrangements and the entire Dairy Barn can host events for up to 120 guests. Coffee pots, overhead projector, screen, dry erase boards, TV/DVD, internet, chairs, and tables are provided.
