Rochester Hills Museum Presents World War II Event

Rochester Hills, MI - The Rochester Hills Museum and the Detroit Arsenal of Democracy Museum present a World War II event on Saturday, August 28 from 9-5 p.m. Driven to Victory will feature Allied and Axis campsites, military and armored vehicles, weapon demonstrations, and battle reenactments at 12:30 pm and 4:00 p.m. In addition, there will be displays and vendors selling military memorabilia. Admission is $5 adults, $3 for seniors and students. World War II and Korean conflict veterans and Museum members are free. For more information visit www.driventovictory.com or <http://www.rochesterhills.org> or call 248.656.4663.

Due to bridge reconstruction on Tienken Road, visitors must access the Museum site from Dequindre Road. The Museum is one mile west of Dequindre off Runyon Road. Please visit the Museum website to download a detour map.

The Rochester Hills Museum is located at 1005 Van Hoosen Road, one mile east of Rochester Road and south of Tienken Road. The Museum is a 16 acre complex of buildings and grounds and features displays and exhibits about regional history. The entire site is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.
