Help preserve our past and inspire the future

The Rochester Hills Museum at Van Hoosen Farm includes five historic buildings, a children's garden, and sixteen acres of historic grounds. The entire site is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Our mission is to interpret, preserve, and collect the history of the greater Rochester area for present and future generations.

Your membership helps the museum create special exhibits, preserve our historic buildings, develop innovative programs, and conserve archival materials. Join today so we can preserve tomorrow!
