Rochester Hills Museum

at Van Hoosen Farm

Welcome Photographers

Dear Photographers:

Thank you for enjoying the Rochester Hills Museum site - 1840 Van Hoosen Farmhouse, 1927 Dairy Barn, 1850 Red House, 1848 Schoolhouse, 1911 Milk House, 1927 Calf Barn and 1927 Bull Barn as well as sixteen acres of gardens and rolling lawn bordered by Stoney Creek.

This is a beautiful site that we want to share with you.

The Rochester Hills Museum at Van Hoosen Farm requires photographers pay a modest fee to help support the Museum's operation. This site is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and our community has invested substantial funds to acquire and preserve this location.

In order to provide exceptional customer service to guests and users, this fee is required to help regulate who is on the site and to coordinate your use in regards to other events.

2020 Fee Guidelines:

- $50 Day Permit— daily permits can be purchased at the Museum's office in the Van Hoosen Farmhouse
- $250 Annual Permit – annual permits can be purchased in person at the Van Hoosen Farmhouse via cash or check made out to the City of Rochester Hills, or via Point & Pay at www.rochesterhills.org/museum Annual permit valid for the calendar year.
- $75 per hour—Wedding Photography Permit— Reservation required.
- All photographers must wear the distinctive Museum identification badge while on the site.
- Fees are required regardless of whether the Museum is staffed or open to the public—Please put check in Museum mailbox at corner of Van Hoosen Rd. and Runyon Rd., when no staff is on site.
- Photo sessions may not be allowed when special events are in progress. Please call the Museum to coordinate your photography session.
- The Rochester Hills Museum reserves the right to monitor appropriate use of the property and props for photographs on the grounds. Please do not sit or climb on any of the historic walls.
- Alcohol, and Smoking of any type is prohibited on Museum property.
- The interior of any building is not available for photography.
- Restrooms are available for use when the Museum is staffed.
